RESTFUL RAROTONGA STAYPUT

July 18 – 25, 2012 8 Days – 7 nights

With a very relaxed pace of life, NZ money, friendly locals and all those beautiful beaches you will be entranced by this island. Great snorkeling, game fishing, diving and challenging golf available for the energetic but with your fabulous waterfront resort accommodation just enjoying your surroundings and the various fun activities on offer is a very attractive option too. We include some outings to local attractions and transport is very easy around the island to do your own exploring. Plenty of time for a day trip out to magical Atutaki if you wish (own expense). In our opinion 'Raro' is perhaps the easiest of all the islands to visit.

Day 1 Wednesday July 18 D

We travel to Auckland to join our flight to the island paradise of Rarotonga. On arrival you will be checked into your 'home' for the next 7 nights.

Day 2 Thursday July 19 BD

Today you will join the Circle Island Tour which will give you an informed commentary on the history and make up of Rarotonga.

Day 3 Friday July 20 BD

A free day to relax by the pool or explore the shops or perhaps make a day trip to Aitutaki Island (own expense).

Day 4 Saturday July 21 BLD

A special treat today as we enjoy Captain Tama's Lagoon Cruise. This will give you a chance to view the coral and fish life and have a delicious BBQ lunch on Kirimiri Island.

Day 5 Sunday July 22 BD

A free day today. Transport can be arranged if you wish to join an Island Church service.

Day 6 Monday July 23 BLD

The highlight today is a Cultural Village Tour. This will give you a great insight into traditional village life and folklore. A light lunch is provided.

Day 7 Tuesday July 24 BD

Another free day to enjoy an island tour (at own expense) or just sit and relax in your beautiful surroundings.

Day 8 Wednesday July 25 B

Back to reality today as we join our flight back to Auckland and on to Hamilton and beyond.
