TARANAKI RHODODENDRON FESTIVAL

Please note date change: November 2 - 5, 2010

Our annual very popular ramble around the beautiful gardens of Taranaki, home of the incomparable Pukeiti Rhododendron Gardens. Two full days of some of the best gardens in the country plus an interesting roam along part of the wild west outback and a lovely cruise up the Mokau River. A great, long weekend away.

Day 1 Tuesday November 2nd

LD

We depart Hamilton and travel south to a lovely country garden at Waitomo. Continuing on we take a brief stop at the Maungapohue Natural Bridge and the Marakopa Falls and then on to Marakopa by the sea where we have a picnic lunch. We then travel south through scenic bush and farming country on to New Plymouth where we spend 3 nights.

Day 2 Wednesday November 3rd

BD

Depart motel at 8.45am. The gardens of Taranaki! Visit several gardens in and around New Plymouth as well as a visit to the world famous Pukeiti Rhododendron Park. Over 100 acres of colourful specimens. Enjoy lunch there before looking at further gardens.

Day 3 Thursday November 4th

BD

Depart motel 8.30am. Another full day visiting the gardens of Taranaki as we travel right around the mountain. We visit a variety of country and town gardens during the day including my personal favourite Ngamamaku and Hollard's Garden, established in 1927 and now run by the National Trust. We return to New Plymouth via Stratford.

Day 4 Friday November 5th

BL

Depart Motel 8.30am. This morning we start our return journey, but not before we visit a nursery!!! Morning tea on the beachfront at Mokau and then for a complete change we join an historic riverboat for a wonderfully scenic journey up the Mokau River. With a delightful lunch included. This should be a special experience.
