We visit the Blue Mountains National Park which is followed by a cruise on the Parramatta River to Circular Quay in the Harbour. We board our afternoon flight to Sydney. For the next 5 nights, we'll be based in our hotel in the Rocks in Old Sydney.

Day 2: Sunday 2nd September | Breakfast, Dinner

Today, we go on a city tour around Sydney. Sit back and enjoy the amazing views of the many Sydney sights along the way.

We explore the city and travel around the bays before returning to the Rocks where we can explore the famous market.

Day 3: Monday 3rd September

Today, there is a choice:

Option 1 – Breakfast, Dinner

We take the ferry across the harbour to Garden Island which includes a tour of the Royal Australian Navy (RAN) Heritage Centre. The rest of the afternoon is free to explore more of Sydney.

Option 2 – Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

At your own expense, go on a Boutique Wildlife Tour. This remarkable and one-off wildlife safari provides the opportunity to see Australia's iconic native animals in the wild.

See the 'Big 5' – Kangaroos, Koalas, Platypus, Wombats and Emus.

Included are lunch and a hearty country-style dinner at one of Australia's Oldest Pubs. One more thing to add is a free pick up and drop off at the hotel.

We are off on a full day tour to the Blue Mountain National Park with its breathtaking views, dazzling waterfalls and the world famous Three Sisters.

Along the way, we visit Scenic World – the home of the Steepest Railway in the world. Ride the Scenic Railway down into the valley if you dare and glide out on the Cableway enjoying amazing views of the Jamieson Valley.

To end our day, we bypass the Sydney peak-hour traffic as we cruise along the Parramatta River from Homebush Bay. Relax in comfort and style before we arrive at Circular Quay.

Day 5: Wednesday 5th September | Breakfast, Dinner

A free day after our fabulous day yesterday. Explore more of Sydney, take a trip outside the city or simply relax.

Tonight, to end the tour, we go out in style as we enjoy an a la carte Captain's Dinner Cruise with live music and dancing.
